

BYLAWS OF NIGHTINGALE AWARDS OF PENNSYLVANIA

ARTICLE I

PURPOSE

1.1 Nightingale Awards of Pennsylvania (the “Corporation”) is a Pennsylvania nonprofit corporation incorporated exclusively for charitable, scientific, educational and literary purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, including engaging in activities the principal purpose of which is to recruit and retain nurses in Pennsylvania.

ARTICLE II

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

2.1 General Powers. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by the Board of Trustees (sometimes referred to as the “Board” and individual members thereof referred to as “Trustee” or “Trustees”). In addition to the powers and authority expressly granted by these Bylaws, the Board may exercise all powers of the Corporation and do all acts that are not prohibited by applicable law, by the Corporation’s Articles of Incorporation or by these Bylaws.

2.2 Trustee Responsibilities. NAP Board Members are expected to assist in achieving NAP’s mission and vision.

2.2.1 Be an active participant. Active participation entails consistent attendance at Board and committee meetings as well as special events sponsored and supported by NAP. Attend board meetings consistently, committee meetings as appropriate and special events sponsored and supported by NAP.

BYLAWS OF NIGHTINGALE AWARDS OF PENNSYLVANIA

2.2.2 Advocate for NAP by increasing its visibility and credibility in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. This may be accomplished by activities including but not limited to introducing NAP to potential supporters, recruiting award nominees from within the nursing profession in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as well as recruit sponsors, advertisers and other means of financial support. Act as an advocate for NAP in increasing its visibility and credibility in the Commonwealth. Introduce NAP's mission to potential supporters.

2.2.3 Support NAP personally with an annual financial gift.

2.3 Number/Qualifications. The Board shall consist of twenty-four (24)

elected Trustees and the Immediate Past President, and the President Emeritus, if such persons wish to serve. President Emeritus shall be a former President of the Corporation selected to hold this office by the Trustees in recognition of outstanding service and loyalty to the Corporation.

Any natural person, who is at least twenty-one (21) years of age and willing to serve the interests of the Corporation, may serve as a Trustee of the Corporation.

2.4 Election and Term.

2.4.1 A new Board member may be elected by the Board for a term of two (2) years at any regular meeting. Terms may be extended at the request of the Board member and the approval of the Board.

2.4.2 All elected Trustees shall serve for a term of two (2) years (or, when filling a vacancy, the unexpired portion of the term) or until their successors are elected and have qualified. The Immediate Past President shall serve as a Trustee until that person is no longer the Immediate Past President. The President Emeritus shall serve as a Trustee until that person is no longer President Emeritus.

BYLAWS OF NIGHTINGALE AWARDS OF PENNSYLVANIA

2.4.3 Vacancies in the Board may be filled by the remaining Trustees in their discretion.

2.5 Meetings. The annual organizational meeting of the Board for, among other purposes, the election of Trustees and officers shall be held on the third Wednesday in January or February, or at such other time, and at such place as the Board may from time to time determine. One meeting is a face to face, all others are conference calls. Regular meetings of the Board shall be held at least quarterly, at such time and place as the Board may from time to time determine. Special meetings of the Board may be called at any time by the President or at least one-third of all Trustees. Meetings of the Board may be held at any location within or without the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

2.6 Notice. Written notice or email of the time and place of all meetings of the Board shall be delivered to each Trustee at least five days prior to the date of such meeting (unless a longer period of notice is required by applicable law, by the Articles of Incorporation, or by these Bylaws) and, in the case of special meetings, shall state the general nature of the business to be transacted, provided that no written notice is required in the case of regular meetings where the date, time and place have been determined in advance by the Board. Written notice shall be delivered via email. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the designated Trustee at such Trustee's most recent address listed in the records of the Corporation.

2.7 Quorum. Fifty percent of Trustees then in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board, unless a greater proportion is required by applicable law, by the Articles of Incorporation or by these Bylaws.

BYLAWS OF NIGHTINGALE AWARDS OF PENNSYLVANIA

2.8 Voting. Each Trustee shall be entitled to one vote on any matter submitted to a vote of the Board. The acts approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Trustees present at the meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the acts of the Board, unless a greater proportion of affirmative votes is required by applicable law, by the Articles of Incorporation or by these Bylaws.

2.9 Removal. Any Trustee may be removed from office at any time, with or without cause, by the Board.

2.10 Limitation on Liability. Trustees shall not be personally liable for monetary damages as such for any action taken, or any failure to take any action, unless (a) the Trustee has breached or failed to perform the duties of the Trustee's office as set forth under Section 8363 of the Pennsylvania Directors' Liability Act; and (b) the breach or failure to perform constitutes self-dealing, willful misconduct or recklessness. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to (a) the responsibility or liability of a Trustee pursuant to any criminal statute; or (b) the liability of a Trustee for the payment of taxes pursuant to local, state or federal law.

2.11 Confidentiality Statement. Trustees shall complete a Conflict of Interest Statement annually by which they agree to comply with avoiding conflicts of interest or disclose them accordingly. The executive committee of the board will be responsible for reviewing them and determining if a conflict of interest exists. Any individual with a stated conflict of interest will abstain from voting and/or recuse themselves from the discussion by exiting the room or call.

ARTICLE III

OFFICERS

3.1 Officers Generally; Election. The officers of the Corporation shall be a president, president-elect, communications chair, finance chair and such other officers as the Board deems desirable. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. In addition to the powers and duties set forth in these Bylaws, officers shall have such powers and duties as are usually related to their offices and as the Board may determine by resolution. All officers shall hold office for a term of two years (or such other term as the Board shall determine for any office from time to time) or until their successors are elected and have qualified, unless sooner removed by the Board. Each year a President Elect will be recruited to allow for appropriate mentoring and transition to President. Each committee chair hold responsibility for holding meetings to accomplish the work as the committee deems necessary and must assure communication with the executive committee following each meeting. Minutes should be sent to the executive committee within 2 weeks.

3.2 President. The President, who shall assume the role after serving as the President-Elect, shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation and shall control and manage the property, business and affairs of the Corporation, subject to the policies and directions of the Board. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board. The President shall be an ex-officio member of all Committees, with full right to participate and vote in the proceedings of each such Committee.

ARTICLE V

INDEMNIFICATION

5.1 Right to Indemnification. The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that such person is or was a Trustee or officer of the Corporation, or, while a Trustee or officer of the Corporation, is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including an employee benefit plan, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, whether or not the indemnified liability arises or arose from any threatened, pending or completed action by or in the right of the Corporation, to the extent that such person is not otherwise indemnified and to the extent that such indemnification is not prohibited by applicable law.

5.2 Advance of Expenses. Expense incurred by a director or officer in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation.

5.3 Procedure for Determining Permissibility. To determine whether any indemnification or advance of expenses under this Article V is permissible, the Board of Trustees by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of Trustees not parties to such action, suit or proceeding may, and on request of any person seeking indemnification or advance of expenses shall be required to, determine in each case whether the applicable standards in any applicable statute have been met, or such determination shall be made by independent legal counsel if such quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, a majority vote of a quorum of disinterested directors so directs. The reasonable expenses of any Trustee or officer in prosecuting a successful claim for indemnification, and the fees and expenses of any special legal counsel engaged to determine permissibility of indemnification or advance of expenses shall be borne by the Corporation.

5.4 Contractual Obligation. The obligations of the Corporation to indemnify a Trustee or officer under this Article V, including the duty to advance expenses, shall be considered a contract between the Corporation and such Trustee or officer, and no modification or repeal of any provision of the Article V shall affect, to the detriment of the Trustee director or officer, such obligations of the Corporation in connection with a claim based on any act or failure to act occurring before such modification or repeal.

BYLAWS OF NIGHTINGALE AWARDS OF PENNSYLVANIA

5.5 Indemnification Not Exclusive; Inuring of Benefit. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by this Article V shall not be deemed exclusive of any other right to which one indemnified may be entitled under any agreement, vote of directors or otherwise, both as to action in such person's official capacity, as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of any such person.

5.6 Insurance, Security and Other Indemnification. The Board of Trustees shall have the power to (i) authorize the Corporation to purchase and maintain, at the Corporation's expense, insurance on behalf of the Corporation and others to the extent that power to do so has not been prohibited by applicable law, (ii) create any fund of any nature, whether or not under the control of a Trustee, or otherwise secure any of its indemnification obligations, and (iii) give other indemnification to the extent not prohibited by a statute.

ARTICLE VI
